The Salem mills have again suspended operations in consequence of the high stage of water

Mill creek bottom above the railroad depot at Salem, is overflowed The track in places, runs through broad lakes

Some rascal tried to rob the Capital Saloon at Salem last Sunday night, but was interrupted by a lodger in the rear part of the building, who caught the would be robber by the leg but could not hold him

A weather record published in the Salem Statesman shows the following facts for 1872 111 rainy, 57 cloudy and 167 clear days The lowest mean temperature of any one month was 33 degrees and the highest 65 The rainfall for the year was 37 90 inches

Mr A Myers, the proprietor of the Agricultural Works at Salem, has a number of workmen engaged in putting up the shafting in the building and preparing to start the machinery. He has leased a part of the building and waterpower to Messrs Cook & Dennis who will immediately start in it an extensive sash, door and blind factory. Another part of the building has been rented to Messrs Cheesebrough & Co, who are preparing to manufacture sacks bags, tents, etc, on an extensive scale The waterpower is ample for all these and a dozen or two more similar enterprises being no less than 200 horse power

The Statesman says The Modoc scalpers whom we mentioned yesterday morning, left on the morning train for the illihee of the Modocs They were armed each with a fraction over thirteen U S needle guns, pocket knives, pocket flasks and copies of the sermon on the mount Col Thompson took a copy also of the Litigant act, intending, if other means failed to bring the sons of the forest to order, to publish the entire rapscallion band and tax 'em into submission with bills for litigant printing It is confidently calculated that this will fetch em, or if not, that they will begin to pray, in about three months, for the rocks to fall on them and hide them, and that will be the last of the Modocs

The Vienna Universal Exposition—Its Importance to Americans

The great exhibition of the arts and industries of the world, which opens in Vienna next year, and which was alluded to by President Grant in his recent Message, is an important event to manufacturers, mechanics, inventors, and others in this country, to whom it will give great opportunities for extending the market for their goods, and placing them in friendly competition with the productions of other countries No expense or effort has been spared to make this exhibition the most comprehensive and successful, as it will be the most magnificent ever held. The park in which the buildings are being erected has an area of over 900 acres The main building, known as the "Palace of Industry," is to be about 3 000 feet long, by 82 feet in width This is crossed by 32 transepts, each 347 feet long by 50 feet wide The Machinery Hall is to be a separate building, 2,600 feet long by 150 feet wide, standing parallel with the Industrial Palace, but about 400 feet distant The entire buildings and grounds will include an extent nearly six times larger than that occupied by the exhibition at Paris in 1867 A hall for the reception of agricultural machinery will also be erected. The space set apart for American exhibitors, in all departments, is most favorably situated, and a large space has been reserved to them in the grounds

Mr Thomas B Van Buren, United States Commissioner to the Exhibition, states that at the earnest solicitation of its chief manager he is making arrangements to have a model exhibited of one of our best common school buildings, furnished with desks and seats, and all the paraphernalia for teaching From the different States advices are daily reaching this office that copies of school books, educational reports, and laws connected with our system of education are being forwarded, to be exhibited with the school-house, and afterward presented to the Austrian Government.

Some features of the patent laws of European countries are objectionable to inventors, but so far as these appear in the laws of Austria, efforts are now being made to remove them, and to protect inventors from piracy and annoyance The Austro Hungarian Parliament has granted the right to every exhibitor to obtain from the General Manager a certificate free of charge, which certificate will act as a full patent during the exhibition, and for two months afterward, and may then be turned into a patent by the payment of a fee of less than $11 On the 6th of April, 1872, there was ratified between the Governments of Austro Hungary and the United States a treaty upon "Trade Marks," which provides that any trade-mark used in either country, to designate the origin or quality of any article, shall fully protect such article when used in Austria Some thirty of our best and most spirited citizens have formed themselves into an Advisory Committee, and are giving their assistance in the work of the Commission Applications from exhibitors are now reaching his office from all parts of the country, and others who desire space should apply for blank forms as soon as possible The exhibition is thus commended to the consideration of Congress by the President

As this Exposition is to be the first which will have been held in Eastern Europe, it is believed that American inventors and manufacturers will be ready to avail themselves of the opportunity for the presentation of their productions, if encouraged by proper aid and protection At the last session of Congress authority was given for the appointment of one or more agents to represent this Government at the Exposition The authority thus given has been exercised, but in the absence of any appropriation there is danger that the important benefits which the occasion offers will in a large degree, be lost to citizens of the United States I commend the subject strongly to your consideration and recommend that an adequate appropriation be made for the purpose To further aid American exhibitors at the Vienna Exposition I would recommend in addition to an appropriation of money that the Secretary of the Navy be authorized to fit up two naval vessels to transport between our Atlantic cities and Trieste, or the most convenient port to Vienna, and back, their articles for exhibition —N Y Times

GERMAN COLONIZATION IN AMERICA —The N Y Tribune's Washington correspondent has this

A letter received to day by a Washington member of the German Colonization Society seems to indicate that the policy of the Prussian Government in preventing or discouraging emigration will meet with considerable opposition by the people themselves Not even the recent orders to the managers of railroads and ship owners, to increase their charge for transportation for persons leaving the country, deter great numbers of farmers and mechanics from making preparations to emigrate The letter referred to set forth the plan of organization of the German-American Colonization Association, the object of which is to encourage systematic emigration to this country The Association is to be composed entirely of farmers and mechanics who desire to emigrate, and who, by its constitution and by laws, are required to have a capital of at least 500 thalers each, and to be less than 60 years of age It organized with 250 members elected its officers, and adopted rules and regulations for future operations Circulars have been sent all over the Empire, and meetings have been called and measures taken to establish branches of the Society in all parts of Germany

Persons not joining the Association, but living in the German Colonies or the United States, will be allowed to join the colonies which it is expected will follow each other in rapid succession The increased cost of living without a corresponding advance in wages in Germany since the late war has caused much discontent, and the movement is likely to be very popular At a recent meeting of the Association an executive committee was elected to canvass for colonists, and some representatives of this committee are expected in this country before long to arrange for the first colony which will arrive in the spring The Prussian Government is said to be watching the movement with great interest, feeling that its future power as a nation depends largely on being able to keep its able bodied men at home If it interferes to prevent the departure of the colonists, they will attempt to bring the matter to the attention of the United States Government

The Daily Oregonian.

THURSDAY MORNING, JANUARY 9, 1873.

J. S. Giltner and the Public Schools.

It is unpleasant to us to call attention further to the high-handed and illegal proceedings of J. S. Giltner as a director of the public schools of this city. But for the fact that his conduct is intimately connected with one of the gravest public interests of the city and county, we should feel almost disposed to deny the claims of that duty which those who conduct public journals owe to the community. That if there is one public institution that lies most nearly at the very foundation of all others in society, it is the public schools. The free schools of Portland are and will continue to be the chief means of education for a large majority of her population. Hitherto they have been an object of pride among our citizens. All embraced within one district, their organization has been more perfect than that of any similar institutions in the State. Harmony prevailed among the teachers, the directors and Superintendent until within the last year. Since the election of this man Giltner, however, the teachers and the other director, Dr. Glenn, have been kept in constant trouble, and have submitted to many personal indignities at Giltner's hands, such as only an ignorant and conceited braggart and bully would have offered. All who have had anything whatever to do with him in connection with the schools, have met his vulgarity and coarseness with silent disgust, and pocketed his insults with undisguised contempt, however annoying and mortifying they may have been.

But at last his conduct has become such that forbearance ceases to be a virtue. It has become necessary to take some notice of him, though it is handling pitch to do so. Yesterday morning we called attention to an outrage of his upon some of the teachers, but we did not tell all the truth. Not being sufficiently informed at that time of the particulars, we preferred to wait and ascertain all the facts from the parties directly concerned. This we have done, and though we do not propose to stain the pages of the OREGONIAN with a detailed account of all his doings, we will give our readers such of them as are not unfit for a decent journal.

On Monday morning Giltner went to the Harrison street school and delivered to certain of the teachers written notices, to appear forthwith at the Central school building for examination. These notices contained a statement that they were issued "by order of the Board of Directors," and were signed "J. S. Giltner, Chairman." That they were issued by order of the Board, or that the Board had ordered those teachers to appear for that examination, was simply a falsehood. There had never been any such proceedings by the Board.

Of the teachers in the Harrison street school, who did not obey, were Miss Taylor and Miss Bodman. The former of these has been a teacher in the school for nearly five years, and is one of the most conscientious and painstaking teachers in the entire corps. She holds a certificate from the County Superintendent which is unexpired, and which is the end of the law so far as the directors are concerned. Miss Bodman, who, though she has not been so long in the school, is one of the most valued teachers, holds a certificate from Governor Grover, given in conformity with the law. So there was no authority of law for this requirement of them. But they were not unwilling to undergo an examination. They only desired to avoid the offensive intermeddling of this Giltner, and the humiliation of being forced to submit to so gross an outrage. They had already signified their willingness to be examined by the officer authorized by law to make the examination.

So on Tuesday morning Giltner went to the Harrison street school and informed Miss Taylor in a very abrupt manner that she was dismissed from that school building. Miss Taylor was, of course, surprised at this sudden turn of affairs and asked some explanation, to which Giltner replied, with expletives that gentlemen seldom use, that she must leave, and that it had been so determined by the Board. Just at that moment Dr. Glenn (the only other member of the Board since the resignation of Hon. J. N. Dolph) came along, and to him Miss Taylor applied for an explanation, when he informed her that no such order had been made by the Board, and that he had never agreed to her dismissal. Giltner, in the meantime, had placed himself in the door with his arms outstretched to either side, in order to prevent by force Miss Taylor's entrance. He declared that whether it had been agreed upon or not, Miss Taylor should not enter the building. Dr. Glenn protested against this proceeding and insisted that there was no occasion for such a course, whereupon Giltner abused him like a pickpocket, in the presence of a number of the teachers and scholars. The matter was finally compromised or rather bridged over by Dr. Glenn yielding so far, to avoid any further demonstration in the presence of the school, as to consent to Miss Taylor being assigned to other classes than those she had been teaching. Thus the matter was disposed of for the time being, but not until after Giltner had made such an exhibition of himself before the youth of the schools whose exemplar he ought to be, as will add to the mortification which all decent people have felt at the fact that a person of his character could be elected a school director in Portland.

It will be seen that Giltner has not only illegally assumed to act alone in the management of the schools, without consulting the other members of the Board, but has resorted to falsifying and signing papers purporting to be issued by order of the Board, which the Board never ordered or thought of. He has added falsehood to insolence, and illegal usurpation to both.

As we said at the outset, we take no pleasure in making this exposition of Giltner's conduct, and should not do so but for a sense of duty. But his irregularities ought to be known to that public whose servant he is, that he may receive the censure of public sentiment, and that community may be warned against the election of such ill-bred creatures in the future.

In taking leave of this bundle of ignorance and vulgarity who styles himself the Board of Directors of School District No. 1., we beg to assure him that he shall not be forgotten. There are some other facts in connection with him that deserve attention, which, in due time they will receive.

The House Committee on Postoffices have agreed to recommend the establishment of the letter carrier system in all cities of 20,000 population or over. Portland will have to wait a year or two yet.

A full history of Hawes' Tavern in Pennsylvania, will shortly appear.

A correspondent writes us from Linkville that there is a strong feeling in that part of the country that the war against the Modocs is not pushed with the vigor that ought to characterize a winter campaign. We are aware of the importance of pushing the Indians before the winter is past, as they will be far better able to continue their depredations in the open weather of the spring and summer; and we quite agree with our correspondent that the people will not long remain satisfied with the present inaction. But too great haste proves as great a calamity as too much delay. The "On to Richmond" policy cost us the battle of Bull Run, and in all probability added two years to the duration of the war. It would appear, however, that the Modoc war ought to be ended pretty soon.

Our correspondent states that in equipping the soldiers, property is purchased at one hundred per cent. above the price at which the same would be sold to individuals. Thus, he says, saddles are purchased for the army at forty dollars which can be bought by any person from the same shop at twenty, and other things in proportion. If this is so, there is room for suspicion of other irregularities. We hope our correspondent will, upon more careful investigation, find that he is in error. Naturally the prices charged to the commonwealth will be higher than those to cash customers, because payments are so long delayed. But one hundred per cent. advance is certainly crowding matters a little.

Mr. J. M. Edgar of this city has been appointed by the publishing house of J. B. Ford & Co., New York, canvassing agent for the "Library of Famous Fiction," a large work gotten up by Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe. The work is in a single volume of about 1,100 octavo pages, and contains, the Pilgrim's Progress, Robinson Crusoe, the Vicar of Wakefield, Gulliver's Travels, Paul and Virginia, Elizabeth, Picciolo, Vathek, Undine, and the most interesting tales from the Arabian Nights Entertainment, with thirty-four elegant illustrations, and an introduction by Mrs. Stowe. The idea of the work was suggested by the great success of William Cullen Bryant's Library of Poetry and Song, and deserves a place beside it in every collection of books. It would be impossible to add anything to the high estimation in which these various works are already held by the literary world. They are indeed famous fiction. Each of them is, in its own way, without a peer in point of merit and reputation. The mechanical work on the volume—printing, binding, &c.—is well done.

The rumor that the Government entertained an idea of gobbling up the Hawaiian Islands is declared to be without foundation. Nobody but those who take the idle babbling of a noisy mob for an index of the sense of the people of America, ever supposed the rumor had any truth in it. The time has passed by when the Ammerican Government can be drawn into, engaging in, or countenancing, any such filibustering scheme. There is a sterling integrity grown up in this country which some people do not seem to recognize.

J. S. Giltner, school director—we should say Board of Directors—and, per consequence, model for the youth of the city to copy after, is a many sided individual. There is no end to the various positions he fills, and has filled, in society. Yesterday he figured in the prisoner's box at the police court, where he was fined ten dollars for engaging in a street brawl.

A recent Havana dispatch says the rebels will hold an election soon, and that General Ignacio Agramonte will be made President, to supersede Cespedes. Their object in this change is said to be to create a favorable impression abroad, which they hope to do through the superior energy and military reputation of General Agramonte.

The laws of the District of Columbia prohibit the sale of spirituous or malt liquors on Sunday, or after the hour of midnight. The new Police Board of the District have resolved upon a strict enforcement of the law.

Portland, Dalles and Salt Lake Railroad

The Committee on Railroads, appointed by the Legislature of Idaho Territory, submitted a report to that body adverse to the passage of the bill known as the Higbee bill, and concluded their report as follows:

We recommend the passage of C. B. No. 18, known as the Chapman bill, with some amendments. We base this recommendation upon the following grounds:

The proposed route is in the direct line from the east to the west, not only of American, but also of Asiatic commerce. It is through a country that seems especially designed as a route for a railroad. It runs through whatever of valuable agricultural lands there are in the southern parts of the Territory. It will render accessible the mineral wealth of Boise and Alturas counties. It extends through the Territory a distance of three hundred and fifty or four hundred miles.

The construction would require the expenditure of several millions of dollars within the Territory, while no coupons are required to be signed for a mile of road not constructed within the Territory.

The Portland, Dalles and Salt Lake Railroad Company are organized; they have a right of way, and are backed by the sympathy, as well as the subsidy, of Oregon.

Their President, Col. W. W. Chapman, has urged assistance in person, upon a plan that is practicable to the company, and not burdensome to the Territory.

The demands of commerce must inevitably bring to the aid of the company the necessary capital to construct the road, within a short time. And by granting our aid at this juncture we can determine the location of the road through our Territory and secure ourselves against unjust discriminations on the carriage of freights and passengers.

Nor will the subsidy asked be burdensome; for by the time the road would be constructed, it would double the taxable wealth of the southern portion of the Territory. The Territorial tax derived from this increase, in addition to the tax on the road would more than meet the liability for the interest. Thus the actual taxation for Territorial purposes, in counties not directly benefited by the road would be diminished instead of being increased by the proposed measure. In this manner the entire Territory would be actually benefited by the construction of the proposed road, as provided in the bill.

We would therefore respectfully recommend the passage of the bill, with some amendments in its minor details.

The Washington National Republican of the 23d of December has this in regard to the composition of the next Congress:

The new edition of the Congressional Directory, compiled by Major Ben Perley Poore, contains many new and interesting features, among others a list of Senators and Representatives elect. Fifty-four out of seventy-four Senators now in will remain. Eleven Senators are yet to be elected, of whom it is believed that four of the present members will be returned. One hundred and sixteen of the present members of House are re-elected. In the Forty-third Congress there will be six colored Representatives and possibly one colored Senator—Pinchbeck, of Louisiana—who is an aspirant for that position. The successor of Senator Wilson is one of the interesting themes of discussion just now. It appears that leading Massachusetts journals have expressed the hope that Mr. Boutwell would forego his Senatorial aspirations and remain at the head of the Treasury Department. This has brought out the fact that Mr. Boutwell is a candidate for the position, and, whether, he is successful or not, his stay in the Cabinet, like that of Mr. Fish, is unalterably limited to the 4 h of March. This puts a new face on the matter, and his friends will now put forth their best energies to secure Mr. Boutwell's election.

A Talk About Tonics.

The object of a tonic is to increase the elasticity and strength of the muscular fibre, and to invigorate the general system. As a means of accomplishing these ends, it is expected to improve the appetite and digestive power of the stomach. Those are certainly important considerations; but to cure dyspepsia, bilious affections, chronic debility, intermittent fever, and other complaints involving derangements of the liver, the bowels, the nerves, and the secretive organs generally, something more than a mere tonic is required. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters may be safely pronounced the best and most wholesome invigorant extant, but the other special medical properties which belong to this remarkable vegetable restorative have as much to do with the wonderful results it produces as its tonic virtues. For example, it has certain alterative qualities which literally change the habit or constitution, re-establishing the healthy functions of the body without causing any undue evacuation by perspiration, vomiting or purging. Its entire effect is to put the whole machinery of life in perfect order, to purify all the fluids, including the blood and bile, and not only to operate as an antidote to disease, where it exists, but so to strengthen, regulate and otherwise improve the condition of the system as to render it proof against vicissitudes of temperature, change of water, infected air, and other prolific causes of liver and bowel disturbances and epidemic disorders. Hence it is a medicine for all seasons and climes—unfit alike to the traveler and the resident in an unhealthy region, and an invaluable safeguard against the physical disturbances which accrue from cold, damp, inclement weather, as well as against the mental depression which is apt to overwhelm the weak and nervous at this some what gloomy period of the year.

SHULTZ AGAIN.—Superintendent Watkinds who came to this city on Tuesday evening from Salem en route for Seattle in obedience to a dispatch which stated that Shultz, the desperado, had been captured and lodged in jail at that place did not leave yesterday as he anticipated. The purport of the dispatch was not sufficiently definite to warrant Watkinds in proceeding at once. He sent several dispatches to Sheriff White of Seattle enquiring more particularly into the circumstances. But White, it appears, was absent from the town and no dispatches could reach him. Mr Watkinds will probably receive information to-day which will cause him either to return or proceed on his journey. There is but little doubt in the mind of the Superintendent that Shultz is somewhere on the Sound but it is not improbable that there is some mistake about his reported capture especially when the cool and desperate character of the man is taken into consideration.

After Shultz was captured at Yreka and effected his escape, he went to San Francisco. When in that city, he was seen by the fellow Pascal Smith who left Portland some time ago. Shultz was recognized at once by Smith. The latter knowing of the former's escape from the Penitentiary, and a reward being offered went at once to Chief Crowley. Smith stated to that officer that he knew a man who was then in San Francisco, that he was an escaped convict, and that a reward of $2,000 was offered for his arrest. Smith offered to point out this man if the Chief would agree to give him half the reward. As Crowley knew nothing whatever of the circumstances, he told Smith to call again in the afternoon and he would give him a decided answer. Crowley then telegraphed immediately to Watkinds and made the necessary inquiries. He learned that such a man as Shultz had escaped and that a reward of only $300 was offered for his apprehension. When Smith called that afternoon, he was told by Crowley that the reward offered was $300 instead of $2 000. The Chief told him, however, that if he would show him (Crowley) or the officers this Shultz, he should have half the reward. This offer Smith declined stating that he was "no $100 man." The matter then dropped. After several days elapsed Smith came back to Crowley and offered to show him Shultz for $400. The Chief sent several men along with Smith, who stated that Shultz he thought would be found along the wharves. The officers went along the shipping and made diligent inquiry for Shultz. It was found, however, that Shultz, or a man bearing that name and answering the description, had embarked as a common sailor a few days before on a sailing vessel bound for some port on the Sound. So the matter rested as far as the officers were concerned. From all the circumstances it seems quite probable that if Shultz is not in the hands of the law, he is now somewhere on the Sound.

THE JOLLY GOOD FELLOWS' BALL.—That ball came off last night and there was a crusher. In the gallery the members of the Order screened by a large flag stretched across from wall to wall, arranged their dresses with the assistance of Mr E. Lipsis, of the Theater, who tendered the use of many of his dresses, as did other members of the Company. At about ten o'clock, the members emerged from "behind the scenes" to the dancing floor, and after a march, Pat and Biddy gave the guests a bit of an "Irish jig." Dancing then was entered into. The oddity and variety of the costumes created a great deal of amusement, and for the gratification of those who were unable to "make out" the wearers, we give the list as complete as it was possible to make it. Here goes R, J—s, comic, E M—l, Spaniard, F C—s, Pat Maloy, John C—r, Biddy Malone, Fred K—l, Horison, Wash P—s, Gen. Jackson, Farmer Jones, Wm. B—s, Jiggist, Al H—n, J R. K—gg, Spanish Count, Fred H—n, Venetian Cavalier, Page, Maggie F—h, Zouave, — P—s, Brigand, Chas P—k, Mariner, T—y, Plantation Bitters, Henry S—n. Among others we notice representatives of Lo, the d—l and other characters. The affair can be put down as a success in every particular.

VANCOUVER ITEMS.—Business dull. Streets in a horrible condition. Episcopal church roofed, and work progressing finely on the edifice. Several dwellings and storerooms completed and under way. Hoop factory in active operation. Brewery ditto. Garrison reduced in consequence of withdrawal of troops to the front. Mr Brandt's funeral largely attended by firemen and others. Mr. Brandt was highly esteemed by all who knew him. Fire Department in splendid trim. Good supply of hose with exception of several sections scorched at the Portland fire. Chief Engineer Wintler, a perfect little gentleman, has a new silver plated trumpet, cap and belt. The "boys" will likely order new head gear of light glazed leather. The firemen are always ready to respond to calls from Portland. Their new house is plain and convenient. New bell to be built for carrying gum hose which has not yet seen service. Five fire cisterns in town and Government domains. New county officers sworn in last Monday. Col. Janes will return from duty in about three months. The Vancouver is a favorite packet. Soldiers drill daily. Master Van Winkle carries the OREGONIAN, and is prompt and attentive. Ike Blum left his bark.

SORELY PUZZLED.—The County Commissioners of Washington county were seriously perplexed a few days ago by an unexpected circumstance which occurred. The new Court House at Hillsboro is so far completed that it was ready to be accepted by the Court. To determine whether the edifice had been constructed in conformity with the contract, it was necessary to inspect the plans and specifications. But on a formal demand being made for them by the court, these documents could not be produced by the contractor. On investigating the matter it appears that one of the sub-contractors who was employed to put on the roof, had the custody of the papers. After the sub contractor finished his work and received his compensation, he concluded to return to his old home in Missouri. When he packed up, the plans and specifications were hurriedly, and thoughtlessly thrust into a trunk, and were removed with the other things. There was no intentional wrong about the matter, it being the result of an accident. The Court will either be obliged to accept the work without consulting the plans, or else write for them, which will incur a vexatious delay of the approval of the building, which is nearly ready for occupancy.

A BOLD GAME.—Some weeks ago a Mrs Wells ran away from her husband and family of small children (leaving them at Hillsboro) with a graceless scamp named Cornett. The forsaken husband followed the fugitives to Junction City, where he had the parties arrested on the charge of adultery. The guilty wife happening to know that the Justice of the Peace who had married her to her husband in Vancouver some years ago had left the coast, and of the absence of the witnesses, and having the certificate in her own possession, boldly denied the existence of any marriage contract between herself and Wells—thus leaving the testimony of the marriage so slight that the examining magistrate was compelled to dismiss the defendants and they went on their way rejoicing—leaving the injured husband to return to his worse than motherless children alone. Such is life.

INSTALLATION.—The officers of Samaritan Lodge, No. 2, I O O F, were installed last evening by the M W Grand Master, J T Apperson, as follows: Daniel Rieman, N G, W H. Brackett, V G, J. F Johnson, R S, C H Perkins, Treas, Henry Sundrum, W, C S Shipley, Con, Geo B Henry, O G, August Schmidt, I G, Jacob Thompson R S to N G, W. B Taylor, L S to N G, C C Phillips, R S, to V G, L C Potter, L S to V G, Louis Harman, R S S, Nathaniel Campbell, L S S. After the Lodge closed, the members and visiting brethren were invited to a splendid supper prepared at the American Exchange, by Messrs Quimby & Perkins which was appropriately discussed by the brethren, and all retired well pleased with the evenings exercises.

THREE SAILORS AGAIN.—Warrants were issued yesterday from the U S District Court for the arrest of three sailors who had been taken into custody on Tuesday morning by the police officers, on board the bark Rival. Marshal Young proceeded to the city jail and took the sailors under his charge. The warrants were based on the allegation that these defendants had broached a portion of the cargo of the Rival, consisting of a number of bottles of champagne. Two cases were broken open and bottles taken from each. The case will come up before U S Commissioner Wilcox to day.

ANNUAL ELECTION.—The annual election of officers for the Portland Hibernian Benevolent Society, was held on Monday evening. The following persons were elected to serve for the ensuing year: President, (re elected) E Cahalin; Vice President, M J Gleason; Secretary, W J Kelly, Assistant Secretary, Mulcahey, Treasurer, T. ...

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS.—The following officers were installed on Tuesday evening at the regular meeting of Multnomah Tribe No 1, I O R M by V Great I Alex Campbell: John Morton, S; F J Jeffries, S S; J H Morrill I S; C C Sears C of R; John Irwin K of W; A J Murry I C H; I Hudson B P. After the installation ceremonies the members and officers repaired to the Maison Doree and partook of a bountiful collation which had been provided.

OLD AND THREADBARE.—An up street cotemporary devotes nearly two columns to a rehash of the adventures of Birlman [alias] Shultz. Probably he was not aware that he was peddling old wares. Scarcely two years ago these same old stories went the rounds of the daily press until they were literally threadbare, and familiar as household phrases. This prurient desire to create a sensation and obtain space at the expense of the reading public is an old and transparent dodge.

OVERFLOWN.—The Wallamet was rising all day yesterday, and immense quantities of drift wood is passing. The river rose over one foot at Oregon City on Tuesday night. Since the first of the month the river has risen over five feet. A portion of Flanders wharf is inundated, and should the present state of affairs continue merchants on the river side of Front street, will soon have to bestow special attention to the contents of cellars.

SCARCITY OF BOARD.—Some enterprising person who knows how to "keep a hotel," ought to open a house of entertainment in East Portland. We are creditably informed that there are numerous applications made for board at the private houses at that place almost every day. This is the first instance we have yet heard of where the hotel accommodations of any Oregon town are inadequate to meet the wants of the public.

MOLARS RECOVERED.—Yesterday as a young man was walking on one of the back streets, he chanced to espy a set of artificial teeth lying on the sidewalk. He picked them up and still has the set in his possession. Should no one call and claim the property, he will be compelled to give them away as the set will be of no use to him, his own molars bidding fair to perform mastication for some years to come.

LOAN NEGOTIATED.—We understand that the Washington county authorities are negotiating for the loan of $4,000 from the banking establishment of Ladd & Tilton. This sum is sufficient to liquidate the indebtedness of the county incurred in the erection of the new Court House at Hillsboro. The total cost of this structure is $16 000. The new building is about ready for occupancy.

RESUMED.—For the last three days a land slide near the summit, on the west side track, has prevented regular trains from running clear through. At the slide a portage was made and passengers and freight were transferred from one train to another. Parties have been engaged in clearing away the obstruction, and yesterday, the first through train came to the city.

OFFICERS OF EMMET GUARD.—A regular meeting of the Emmet Guard was held last evening. The annual reports of the Treasurer and Secretary of the company were read and received. The following additional officers were chosen to serve for the ensuing year: Recording Secretary, John M Gearn, Financial Secretary, John Corcoran.

COLLECTION OF UMBRELLAS.—At the stable of the street railroad company are a large number of umbrellas. These articles have accumulated by passengers leaving them by mistake in the cars, and not calling for them. Persons who have lost umbrellas can recover their property by calling at the stable and identifying them.

STILL NO CONNECTION.—There is still no connection on the railroad beyond Pumphrey's Landing, in consequence of the land slide. It will be some days, in all probability, before the obstruction is removed, on the account of the weather. Until regular trains are again running, passengers will be compelled to take the jolting stage.

SENT TO JAIL.—The case of the three sailors who were arrested on the bark Rival for disorderly conduct, was called in the Police Court yesterday morning. The Court after an investigation of the case, sentenced one of the sailors to the City jail for five days, and the other two for twenty days each.

CARRIED DOWN.—As a man was crossing the river yesterday in a skiff, the boat was caught on a log and carried down on the swift current. Fortunately the frail craft was not capsized. The boat was borne on the waters considerable distance before the man could disengage himself from the drift.

A GOOD ARTICLE.—Mr Geo. L. Hibbard placed on our table last evening a roll of fresh butter from the extensive dairy of D R Fales of Lake river. This butter, for freshness and delicacy of flavor, surpasses most of the brands now in the market. Mr Hibbard is sole agent.

APPOINTED.—Mr R J Ladd received the appointment yesterday of Commissioner of Swamp Land, for all that portion of Oregon lying north of Lane county and west of the summit of the Cascade Mountains. Mr Ladd will enter upon the duties of the position at once.

LAST LOAD.—The steamer Dixie Thompson came up the river yesterday morning from Astoria. She began soon after her arrival to receive another load of wheat. This load will complete the cargo of the Victoria Nyanza, now lying at Astoria.

SOCIABLE.—A gathering of the friends of Rev Mr. Jones, of the M. E. Church, will take place this evening at his residence on Fifth streets, between Washington and Stark streets. Let the greeting be a hearty one and all his friends turn out.

CAUTION NECESSARY.—The quantity of drift wood which is passing, renders an extreme degree of caution necessary on the part of ascending or descending boats to avoid collisions and prevent the wheels from catching in the logs and branches.

FATHER MATTHEW, T A B. SOCIETY.—There will be a meeting of the above named Society this (Thursday) evening at their hall on Stark street, for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing term. A full attendance is requested.

CONTEMPLATED IMPROVEMENTS.—We learn that there is some talk of erecting a woolen mill on the south fork of the Tualatin, about half a mile from Cornelius. A tannery is also projected at the same point.

TIME EXTENDED.—By action of the Board of Trustees of East Portland, the time for the collection of taxes has been extended to the first of February.

JURY LIST.—The County Court will draw the list of jurors for the ensuing year to day in accordance with the requirements of the law.

HAY.—Great quantities of this article are arriving from down the river. The steamer Rescue brought up 68 bales last evening.

AMUSEMENTS.

Miss Kate Denin will be the recipient of a benefit at Oro Fino theater to morrow evening.

The "Lady of Lyons" was produced last evening at Oro Fino Theater to a fair house. Miss Denin assumed the character of Pauline, and Mr Waldron as Claude Melnotte. The play was rendered in excellent style. This evening, the great play of "The Stranger" will be offered to the public. In this play Miss Denin will appear as Mrs Haller, and Mr Waldron as the Stranger.

Persons wishing to make a present to their friends of a fine easy chair or an article of furniture at once useful and ornamental should go to Hurgren & Shindler's.

COMMON COUNCIL.

REGULAR MEETING, JAN 8 1873

The Common Council of the City of Portland, met pursuant to ordinance—His Honor Mayor Wasserman presiding.

Present—Councilmen Burton, Caywood, Congle, Hallock, Moreland and Russell.

Absent—Councilmen Besser, Hill, Story.

PETITIONS COMMUNICATIONS, ETC.

A message was received from the Mayor returning the ordinance defining the duties of Superintendent of Streets. The question being—shall the ordinance pass notwithstanding the veto? The vote was taken and the ordinance was lost.

The petition of Wm H Watkins and others asking that a road be opened to the City Park was read and referred to Committee on Streets and Public Property.

The petition of R Holman, Foreman of Engine Company No 4, asking that a hose carriage and tender combined be purchased for the use of the Company and that said Company be allowed an increase of their quarterly allowance read and referred to Committee on Fire and Water.

REPORTS OF OFFICERS

The report of A A Williams, retiring Chief Engineer of the Fire Department was read and on motion ordered published.

To the Hon Mayor and Common Council—Gentlemen. The law regulating the Fire Department strictly requiring it of the Chief Engineer that he shall report annually in full the status of the Department—its deeds during the time and its present condition and number of cisterns and hydrants, capabilities and extent of property, its apparatus of fire company, and number of firemen, alarms with amount of loss and insurance. In compliance with such law allow me to tender you this my annual report for the year ending December 31 1872.

ALARMS

During the past year, the number of false alarms has been 20; the number of fires 10.

LOSS

The amount of loss sustained by the various parties has reached $325 000, amount of insurance not ascertained.

CISTERNS

During the past year three new cisterns have been completed and added to the number of those now in use by the Department, viz corner Fifth and B streets, corner Seventh and Harrison streets and corner Tenth and Washington streets.

HYDRANTS

Four new hydrants have also been erected, one at each of the following places: corner Front and Pine streets, corner Seventh and Main streets, corner Tenth and Main streets, corner Sixth and Market streets.

APPARATUS

Since the last annual report, by which the fire apparatus was returned in good order, nothing has occurred to render a different report necessary. Some slight repairs have been required, which I have ordered done, and all again is in order.

HOSE

The hose, however, is, as a general thing, in bad order. During our late extensive fire the carbolized hose purchased by the city was demonstrated to be by far the best, and as a rule the cheapest hose to be purchased in the future.

ENGINE HOUSES

Your attention has already been called to the fact that the house of Company No 1 is inadequate for the use and accommodation of the Company.

With regard to Company No 2, I must report their house as totally unworthy of further repair by reason of the settling of the foundation, leaking of the roof, and various other indications of decay, this house having been occupied fourteen years. It must be returned as unsuitable for further occupancy.

Companies Nos 3 and 4 occupy houses concerning which no report is necessary further than that they are both in good order.

Hook and Ladder Company No 1. The same report is made concerning the house occupied by this Company as is returned of Company No 2—viz house unfit for a much greater length of time.

BADGES

Since the annual report of my predecessor the Department has been provided with badges which will contribute in a great measure toward doing away with much of the confusion ever consequent upon a fire.

CONDITION OF DEPARTMENT

Regarding discipline, good order and abilities as firemen I must rank the members of this Department as second to none in the country excelling in all the branches of fire duty.

EXPENSES

The expenses connected with the Department have necessarily been somewhat greater than the year preceding, amounting in the aggregate to the sum of $11 640 30.

Furthermore the following named persons injured by the falling of walls at the time of the fire on the 22d day of December 1872, have ever since been unable to follow their usual avocations to-wit: J F Gallagher and Geo Lowe seriously wounded, Robert Holman, H Lemline, J H Moore, R. H Austin and Keirnan, slightly.

CONCLUSION.

In conclusion, I would improve this occasion to most cordially thank every man of the Department, be they officers or be they members for their general energetic and hearty co operation with me in endeavoring to save life and property. Thus, doing their duty, I leave them to retire to the ranks. To you, gentlemen, I have to express my sincere thanks for your warm support of measures recommended by me, when deemed expedient and to bid you a kind farewell.

Respectfully submitted,
A ARCHIE WILLIAMS,
Chief Engineer P F. D

Greeley and Mirabeau

Col J W Forney is writing for the Washington Sunday Morning Chronicle a series of articles entitled Anecdotes of Public Men, from one of which we extract the following

Death is busy among the brave and the gifted Wm Prescott Smith, George Gordon Meade, Horace Greeley have been called in the prime of life and usefulness They faded suddenly from the ranks of men and nothing remains save the memory of the exquisite humor and kindness of the one, the modest courage of the other the various resources and ceaseless benevolence of the last But none of the many that have been summoned will live so long in our hearts not even Wm H Seward, the venerable sage who led the way full of honors and of years as the silver haired philosopher of the New York Tribune The incidents preceding his death, the manner of it, and the rare events that followed and crowned it, will supply material fifty years hence for a most touching drama In one respect the tribute to his memory must always be unequaled I mean the literary laurels laid upon his grave by his associates of the press. The eulogies upon Washington and Lincoln were more numerous, perhaps but they were not so original and certainly not more sincere Differing from the worship of Lincoln, martyr as he was what was said of Greeley came as warm from the impulses of his enemies as from the impulses of his friends To employ Mr Sumner's splendid fire "Parties are always for the living, and now, standing at the open grave of Horace Greeley, we are admonished to forget the strife of party, and to remember only truth, country, and mankind, to which his honest life was devoted. In other days the horse and armor of the departed chieftain have been buried in the grave where he reposed, So, too, may we bury the animosities if not the badges of the past. Then, indeed, will there be victory for the dead which all will share " Every journalist who has written, and all have written, has, with some unforgotten exceptions, poured his warmest affections into the sobbing hearts of a sympathising people. Each has done his best, and many have surpassed themselves There has been an intellectual rivalry among these masters of the pen Who will not cherish the glorious effusions of the New York World on Friday, December 1, 1872, the fervent eulogy of the New York Herald, and the splendid homage of Theodore Tilton in the Golden Age, Sam Bowles in the Springfield Republican, Wm Cassidy in the Albany Argus, W F Storey in the Chicago Times, and their contemporaries, North and South, East and West? Preserved, as they will be, in one or more volumes, they will be a monument to Horace Greeley more enduring than the loftiest column of bronze or marble, though covered with bas reliefs, and gorgeous in compliments carved by cunning hands

The last time I saw Mr. Greeley was at the Continental Hotel in Philadelphia, several weeks before the Cincinnati Convention. The interview had been arranged by one of the gentlemen of the Tribune at Mr. Greeley's request, and we had a long and confidential talk. I am quite sure he did not then entertain the remotest idea of his nomination against General Grant, and though he was earnest in expressing the belief that the man could be found to defeat Grant, he listened patiently to my earnest appeal to him I told him that both of us owed allegiance to the Republican mission, that General Grant deserved re-election, that there was not the slightest prospect of defeating his renomination, and that I longed to see the great Tribune in the head of what would be an assured victory. He was unusually genial and kind, and I have always believed that, when we parted, he was carefully reconsidering his course He used no harsh words in speaking of the President, and seemed to be animated only by solicitude for the country, and never once referred to himself as a possible Presidential candidate.

As I sat, Wednesday, December 4, in the Church of the Divine Paternity, New York city, and noticed the multitude of representative men—Thurlow Weed's aged form, Chief Justice Chase, with bare and bending head, William Evarts' spare figure and mobile face, General Dix, the Governor-elect of New York—among the pall-bearers, the President, his secretaries, and part of his Cabinet, the crowds of editors from all parts of the country—and heard the sacred music and the magnificent discourse of Dr. Chapin, I thought of the death and burial of the great Frenchman, Mirabeau, April, 1791. Very different were the two men, but their lives were equally eventful and their last hours equally dramatic. Mirabeau was exhausted by his frequent public speaking. Five great orations in one day finished him, and when brought to his final hour, he exclaimed, "To day I shall die, envelop me in perfumes, crown me with flowers, and surround me with music, so that I may deliver myself peaceably to sleep." Our friend did not call for odors, or roses, or sweet strains, they came from the spontaneous love of his saddened friends. Like America with him, however, Mirabeau's death extinguished all the envies and enmities of the French. Party feuds dissolved in tears over his body, and he passed to his rest through an avenue of hundreds of thousands of former foes.

But how different the recollections of these two men! Mirabeau is rarely recalled, and only as an impassioned tribute—a man of sentiment rather than of action, with few fixed convictions. Greeley will live as a marvelous aggregate, strong in good works, his fame growing riper with the increasing fruits of his gigantic labors for humanity.

The Diamond King

The name of Arnold is suggestive of plots and general underhand work, and Kentucky has created no little sensation by being the home of the greatest liar and the deepest plotter on the face of the earth, named Philip Arnold, whose exploits in the diamond line have been bruited from one end of the country to the other. The South Sea scheme of the Scotchman Law, was a bungle compared to the daring innovation in the art of swindling which distinguished Arnold, and the developments from the diamond enterprise reveal the fact that people are as asinine as of old, that they are just as ready to jump at anything in a reckless manner which promises money without labor.

Arnold had advertised another expedition to the diamond fields since the attachment was taken out, to come off in March which was part and parcel of his brazen effrontery to make people believe that he was still master of the situation, but his bubble has burst at the touch of the hand of science, and he is gone, no one knows whither.

On Thursday his private safe was opened at his residence in Elizabethtown, by Sheriff Wood, of Hardin county, who wielded an attachment gotten out by General J M Harlan and General Bristow, attorneys for Wm M. Lent, one of sufferers by the diamond fever.

It was deemed highly probable that the safe contained something valuable, and when its doors were flung open in the presence of the Sheriff and the attorneys, investigation revealed the following articles

$45,000 in railroad bonds of McCracken county subscription to the E. & P. R R.

$800 in currency and gold coin

A magnificent large diamond cross, necklace and earrings.

Three superb diamond rings and a large lot of valuable silverware

These articles are now in the hands of Sheriff Wood. There was attached also several hundred acres of land, conveyed to Mrs Philip Arnold, but charged to have been purchased with Arnold's money, and then conveyed to her to evade his debts.

Arnold is supposed to have realized out of his huge diamond fraud at least $650,000

People who went so enthusiastically into the embrace of this hypothetical wealth did not pause to consider that if diamonds could be dug up like gravel stones they would cease to have a market value —Louisville Commercial

The Louisville Courier-Journal says A Tennessee correspondent, who is evidently a little rusty in Hellenic lore writes to ask, "Who was Aspasia?" She was a female woman who played Josephine Mansfield to the Jim Fisque of Pericles." But you musn't suppose that we ever knew her personally

Cornelius DeWitt recently deceased in Hollan City, Michigan, is said to have been the survivor of one hundred of Napoleon's battles to say nothing about the skirmishes.

Holiday Drinking

The subjoined account of a temperance meeting in Washington City, is from the National Republican of December 23d

A public temperance meeting was held yesterday evening in Lincoln Hall for the purpose of discussing "The perils of holiday hospitality" Rev Dr Chickering, of Boston, presided The exercises were opened by the singing of a hymn by a volunteer choir and prayer by Rev Dr Parke, of Calvary Baptist church

Dr Chickering read a few verses from the Prophet Jeremiah, expressing grief for the sins and consequent sorrows of Israel and referred to an utterance in the same strain on this platform last year by the Vice President of the United States

It was with unutterable sadness Mr Colfax had said in substance that he surveyed the scenes of woe and guilt produced by indulgence in strong drink, from its slight but perilous beginning onward to its most frightful excesses

Similar feelings said Dr Chickering, are appropriate even in the anticipation of what the approaching festivities of Christmas and New Year's will witness, and for which those time honored anniversaries will furnish the occasion and excuse

A highly respectable gentleman of this city has lately said that for many years in early life he did not consider either day as properly observed till he had become more or less intoxicated

Many a mother in this and other cities has learned by the saddest of maternal experiences to dread the return of her son on those evenings not from the haunts of low dissipation but from the elegant hospitalities of friends

He was glad to find a reformatory movement in this direction in many cities It was the purpose of this meeting to awaken public attention to the perils of such holiday hospitalities as have been too common He had hoped to have the presence and aid of two Vice Presidents—the out going and the in coming As the former had other engagements, we are happy to introduce the Vice President elect Hon Henry Wilson, who from his first appearance here as a young political aspirant has been a faithful and consistent friend of temperance

Rev Dr Parsons of Philadelphia, was introduced He contended that this mighty work of temperance societies was to educate the people to prevent them from becoming unfortunate falling humanity. St Paul, when he advised young men not to drink, meant that they should be sober in order that they could be able to teach the way to Christ, and by drinking they would be unable so to do

The mere effect of taking a glass of liquor is nothing, but the habits that will follow from it and out of it will grow so much that it is full of harm A resolution of abstinence should be such that it will bear upon every point where there is the least possible chance of escape from its bindings

He believed that a compulsory education to temperance should be introduced in the private and public schools, where the necessity of total abstinence would be imparted to the children in their youth, and go with them to manhood He related several amusing incidents where compulsory education was brought into use on some unfortunates who had gotten on its down track, in which the determined efforts of those having the matter in charge were successful, and the results beneficial. He urged his hearers to be careful of the glass of wine that will be offered to them during the Christmas and New Year's holiday, and prophesied that the abominable custom ere long will be done away with

Upon the conclusion of Dr Parson's remarks, the choir sang another hymn, and was introduced, and said as he understood the purpose of the meeting to be to take into consideration the subject of holiday hospitality, he entered into the work with greater vim. Since his coming to Washington eighteen years ago, he had seen a great many changes with which he was much pleased. This city has done as much towards the temperance movement and abatement of intoxication as any other city in the country.

He trusted the officers of the Government who will receive during the holidays will dispense with wine, and thereby set a good example to those in lesser positions. In his travels during the late campaign he encountered thousands of people, and at many of the meetings at which he spoke he did not see a single case of intoxication He thought the cause of temperance had made great progress among officials, and he hoped for the good of the common country that the people would abstain during the holidays from offering wine and carry this cause to a glorious end. He related an incident of a prominent citizen of Chicago making on one occasion seventy-one calls, and in all of this number there was only one place where wine was offered to him. He asked his hearers to follow in the same path He believed it to be the duty of every good citizen of the United States to keep back himself, and thereby hold back others from this terrible curse, and assist in lifting fallen humanity and wipe this evil from the land He closed by asking all to dispense with wine during the holidays, and asked the young men to use their influence in this direction. After benediction the meeting adjourned

THOUGHTFUL DELICACY —A story is told of by Dickens in the narrative of his residence in Switzerland given to the world by Forster, of a Swiss bride who, having according to local custom to buy a black dress, for her wedding, observed to her mother, an old lady of 82 years, "You know, mother I am sure to want mourning for you soon, and the same gown will do" Similar want of reverent delicacy is often compatible with real affection in the case of persons deficient in cultivation. District visitors often meet with instances of this obtuseness in the very poor, even when there is no lack of good feeling The Scotch peasantry, a warm-hearted race enough, are great sinners in this respect A benevolent lady who devoted herself to soothing the woes of the sick and sorrowful in a small Scotch parish, being particularly attracted by an amiable young girl the daughter of a cottar who was suffering from consumption, visited her continually in her little garret The patient got weaker and weaker, and her kind friend entertained little doubt that the end was near, when, on calling as usual to see the sufferer she was astonished to find her down stairs in the 'keeping room.' On questioning the mother as to the improvement she supposed must have taken place to warrant this change, the tender parent immediately replied in her child's presence 'Deed, mu leddy, we were fain to move her, we couldna hae gotten the corpse down the stairs '

The political muddle in Louisiana has a counterpart in Arkansas A Little Rock dispatch of December 24th says

Mr. William M Harrison, candidate on the reform State ticket for the position of Associate Justice of the Supreme Court at the recent election, to day filed a complaint before H C Caldwell, United States District Judge for the Eastern District of Arkansas, praying for an injunction to prevent M. L Stevenson and E J Earl, the Republican candidates, whose election has been announced by the State Department, from exercising the duties of the office, and also asking for a restraining order to prevent Acting Governor Hadley and Secretary of State Johnson from altering or changing the original returns, and asking for a mandamus to compel them to produce in court the original returns, statements, etc, in reference to the election

The bill charges the Governor, the Secretary of State, the registrars, county clerks and judges of election with confederating together and fraudulently depriving thousands of citizens of the right to vote, of changing and altering the returns and preventing the returns from being made from four counties, by which the complainant avers he was deprived of the benefit of 10 000 votes

The counsel moved for a temporary injunction until the motion could be heard and argued, on the ground that the defendants would deface the records after being apprised of these proceedings unless restrained from doing so

Judge Caldwell refused a temporary injunction but directed that the parties be served with a notice and a copy of the complaint, and he said that he would hear the matter on Monday next.

There must be something good in Gratz (no reference to distilled qualities) after all since the Courier Journal is "perfectly free to say that, having had reason to change our opinion of Governor Brown, we are not his friends and would vote for him for nothing."

Among the numerous expressions of opinion on financial subjects by the Secretary of the Treasury in his report to Congress his pronounced views on the subject of protection are especially acceptable to the Fuel and Iron interests of the West, and by the most reliable people of every state and of every position, by the present wealth and prosperity of the country under a protective policy of twelve years standing, Mr Boutwell's clear expression in his annual report of that system in the following strong language "I am entirely clear in the opinion that the tariff system of the country has contributed largely to the general prosperity and that such a general and continued prosperity is the only basis on which ever a wise financial policy can rest and while anticipating that the wants of the Treasury may at no warrant a reduction of the tariff duties I do suggest that the reduction should not be made so largely as to affect the wants of the Treasury but it should be had also to the condition of the various branches of industry in which the people are engaged

The Iron Trade.

The Pittsburg Commercial says The iron trade just now presents some remarkable phases There are at present in this city agents of an English house who offer to deliver in Pittsburg 10 000 tons of ore from Algeria, at prices quite moderate At the figure named the ore will not cost more than Lake Superior ore at the prices spoken of for next season Ores are offering from Nova Scotia at figures less than African ore These ores are warranted to yield 62 per cent of iron Should Superior ores continue to advance, the foreign product will at once come in competition It is remarkable that these ores can be carried such distances by water, and then freighted hundreds of miles inland and offered at such moderate prices Should the demand continue to increase it will stimulate the development of our mines of low grade ore The hills of Western Pennsylvania and West Virginia are rich with iron ore, of a lower per cent It is true, the those of the Superior region, but which at the difference in cost must soon find a market It would be an anomaly if the iron ores of Africa should be brought into competition with those of Lake Superior in the Pittsburg market

Mines of Great Britain

The annual return for 1871 of the mineral product of Great Britain, shows 3 060 coal mines produced 117 352,028 tons of coal valued at $176,320,040 (gold, $5 to the pound sterling); 210 ironstone mines produced 16,134 683 tons of iron ore, valued at $38 352,980; 122 copper mines produced 97,127 tons of copper ore, valued at $1 935 160; 146 tin mines produced 16 272 tons of tin ore, valued at $5 164,170; 241 lead mines produced 93 015 tons of lead ore, valued at $5 778,860 and 47 zinc mines produced 17 736 tons of zinc ore, valued at $281 650 The total value of the mineral product of the United Kingdom, in 1871, was $244,772 000 The metals obtained from the ores is valued at $160 898,850, and the value of the metals not smelted $185 710 615; total $250,509,405 This does not include building stones, lime, slates common clay, and brick earth

Miscellaneous

The bark Columbia, 991 tons, has been chartered in San Francisco to go to Burrard Inlet, B C, and take a cargo of lumber to Melbourne, Australia, £8 per thousand feet

It is estimated that 7,000 000 hogs will be packed this year in the United States

It is estimated that a total of 7,000,000 bales of cotton, valued at $400 000,000 in gold, is now consumed every year in Europe and the United States

The sugar crop of Louisiana this year is estimated at 135,000 hogsheads

Decline in Lumber.

The Olympia Tribune says

Latest advices from San Francisco report a decline in the prices of Puget Sound lumber It is now quoted at $17@18 per thousand feet for rough lumber, and $26@28 per thou and feet for dressed; a reduction from $19@22 50 for rough and $30@32 for dressed lumber, Laths are quoted as low as $3@3 50 per thousand This great reduction in price is occasioned almost entirely by the great amount of shipping recently arrived at San Francisco, and a corresponding reduction of lumber as well as grain and other freights Prices on the Sound remain unchanged.

The Wool Market.

[BY TELEGRAPH]

SAN FRANCISCO Jan 8 —The latest advices from New York report the wool market very quiet but firm at the close with no indications of a decline The continued stringency of the money market and the absence of manufacturers, who are mostly at home settling up accounts for the outgoing year, operate to curtail business, and the stocks as a general rule are very low It was expected there would be a good business from the middle to the last of current month The Boston Shipping List of the 25th ult says We continue to notice a comparatively quiet market Desirable lots of Wool are held firm and no pressure to sell, as holders have considerable confidence in the future of the market Wisconsin and Michigan fleeces range from 60 to 67½; Ohio Pennsylvania and West Virginia 17½ to 70c, but available supplies at these figures are small.

Home Produce Market.

WHEAT—Both our San Francisco and Liverpool dispatches denote a firm market and a slight advance In our own we have no important change to record though it is fairly quoted in at $1 75 per cental We saw a letter from Lafayette to-day stating that parties in Yamhill county were offering 88@90 cents per bushel, delivered free on the boats or cars It is also announced and we have it from one of the firm that Messrs Hewett & Wilson, who have bought and exported largely during the season, are out of the market, they deeming current rates too high to justify them in paying for cargoes to load the vessels they have chartered at a high figure It is also rumored that other large buyers have drawn out but of this we have no positive knowledge At any rate we notice no tendency in prices to decline on account of these movements

FLOUR—The market rules steady at the figures last given with moderate receipts and some decline in the demand

OATS—The demand has fallen off somewhat, and trade is dull We quote 55@60 cents per bushel

BARLEY—Quotable nominally at $1 40@1 50 But little doing

HAY—The demand is not large to-day, and prices are weaker, though good timothy still commands $20 per ton Wild is very dull at $10@12

BUTTER—Unchanged and dull for all kinds, except choice fresh dairy

EGGS—Prices are down to 25 cents per dozen, and but few buyers

Other products without change

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco Established in 1854 for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated

DR GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe, and has resumed practice at his Dispensary, 623 Kearny street, corner of Commercial, San Francisco, where his old patients and those requiring his services may find him

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money to seek out new remedies, and has returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken down constitutions disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of those horrible, life destroying maladies—see that they are cured for and cured before it be too late Send them immediately to DR GIBBON, a physician who has made private diseases his special study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate case, without mercury or any injurious drugs It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse, This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms unless combated by scientific medical measures viz Sallow countenance dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers a dislike to form new acquaintances, disposition to shun society, loss of memory hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of the complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN.

Or those who contemplate marriage who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions. By inclosing Ten Dollars coin, in registered letter through the Postoffice or through Wells, Fargo & Co., a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union

All communications strictly confidential.

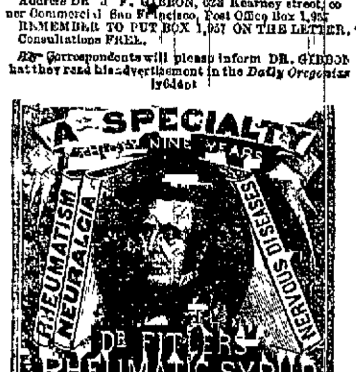

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who, with bogus sworn to certificates, dupe the unwary some of the self styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen and became too lazy too work at their trades Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets, for, as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patients' letters, etc. Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR J F. GIBBON, 623 Kearney street, corner Commercial San Francisco, Post Office Box 1,957

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 1,957 ON THE LETTER. Consultations FREE.

Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian ly6d4pt
